

When Howe was cruising had threatened to kill Dr. Carman, was found dead today and the story told by Dr. Carman to detectives.

Howe, who is in business here, said that two years ago he invited Dr. Carman and his wife to an outing on Great South Bay, L. I., in his motor-boat. He would not let the nature of the "W. landed at an island," Howe said, and ran across David Kennedy and Dr. Carman. The moment he spied them the woman in our party screamed and ran back to the boat. I ran after her and found her on a seat in hysterics. She was screaming, "That man killed my husband and ruined me. I am going to kill him if it takes a life." She picked up a patent knife, shaped like a dagger and started to leave the boat. I caught hold of her, kept her back and asked whom she meant.

"Dr. Carman," she said.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY ON OSBORNE TURNPIKE

Two Negroes Dispute Over Ownership of Whip in Jail.

A. Nelson Patterson, colored, of 3002 R Street, who was slashed across the stomach and back with a knife wielded by a fellow-workman, John Patterson, in an affray Monday night, was reported last night by hospital attendants at the city home to be recovering nicely from his injuries, and it was stated that the recovery would be certain.

John Patterson, who was arrested shortly after the affray occurred, is being held in the County Jail. A trial, which will not be conducted until physicians attending the injured man are reasonably certain that complications which might prove fatal will not set in.

The disputed ownership of a whip is said to have been the cause of the trouble which resulted in one negro going to jail and the other to the hospital. Both men were working for the Richmond Bethel, and were returning home from work when the trouble arose. Just as the two men reached the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad bridge on Osborne Turnpike, the injured man is alleged to have been struck with the whip. The man who was injured was taken to the hospital, and the other man was taken to the city home.

Two hours later police officers going to the home of John Patterson, near Paulin Hill, found the negro in bed and apparently sound asleep. County Police Officer Shonaker and Soay, together with City Police Officer Ruffel and Summiker, arrested the negro and carried him to jail. The ambulance carried the injured man to the hospital, where his wounds were dressed.

Catches Eyelet on Nail.

Catching his eyelet on a nail in the front gate of his home, 226 North Nineteenth Street, Augustus Green, a two-year-old colored child, was taken to the city hospital, where he was treated for a laceration of the eye. The child was taken to the hospital by his mother, Mrs. Green, who said her husband had been taken to the hospital for further treatment. He was resting comfortably last night, but it is said the eye was badly torn by the prying of the gate.

WOMAN IS ARRESTED FOR KILLING HUSBAND

Mrs. Joseph Johnson Says He Was Shot From Roadside, But She Is Held for Murder.

WALSH PROVES COMPLETE ALIBI AND IS EXONERATED

Mystery of Death of Howard A. Newman, New Ashland, Va., Resolved.

Establishing an unquestionable alibi, E. W. Walsh, the man arraigned before Magistrate J. W. Tucker, Jr., at Ashland yesterday on a charge of having murdered Howard A. Newman, was released from custody. His exoneration of the charge was complete, and Walsh was made free to go home. He had disappeared since the night of March 4, when he was arrested.

Walsh was arrested on a warrant sworn out by W. E. Newman, an ex-policeman, father of the dead man, on the day following the discovery of the badly decomposed body on the banks of the South Anna River, near Ashland. Newman declared that he had sufficient evidence to convict that he accused of murder, but detectives who have been detailed on the case had practically assured themselves that Walsh was able to prove an alibi on the day after his arrest.

SETTLE POSITIONS OF RIVAL LEADERS

mounts of the rural guards and all the ammunition in the vicinity.

Another report that General Huerta was ready to resign, and had summoned General Carranza to succeed him, was brought here to-day by one whose relations with the foreign legations in Mexico City are close. He said that Carranza had accepted the offer to resign, and that when he, the informant, was at Cordoba last night, General Carranza was preparing to depart immediately in obedience to orders to report personally to General Huerta.

DIFFERENCES ADJUSTED BETWEEN REBEL LEADERS

Washington, July 7.—Reports to-night from Torreón that the Villa-Carranza peace conference ended last night, and that differences in the Constitutional ranks had been adjusted was encouraging to Washington officials and Constitutional agents here, who hope mediation of the Mexican embargo issue may be successfully concluded.

While no official dispatches had been received by General Carranza's agents relative to the settlement of the Constitutional differences, a message last night from General Carranza, addressed to his American agent, Felix Sommerfeld, declared the Torreón conference was progressing satisfactorily, and that the differences would be settled.

Later information direct from the conference asserting that terms of settlement had been reached was credited here generally. It was believed that a decision by the Constitutionalists generally.

as to the invitation for their representatives to meet with Huerta's delegates to discuss Mexico internal affairs soon would follow.

Rafael Zubaran, Luis Cabrera, Fernando Iglesias Calderon and Leopoldo Hurtado Espinosa, Constitutional agents, conferred to-day with Charles A. Douglas, legal representative of General Carranza in Washington, after Douglas had talked with Secretary Bryan regarding future mediation plans. None would discuss details of this report at present, but Mr. Douglas made this statement:

"I have every reason to believe after troubles between Villa and Carranza are settled, delegates from the Constitutionalists will be named to meet with Huerta delegates to discuss the formation of a provisional government in Mexico."

Mattingly, when Mexican Federal soldiers near American outposts at Vera Cruz was subject of interest in American official quarters. Several messages from General Funston reported that fighting between the Federal and Huertan forces was in progress. The Mexican Federal commander previously had warned General Funston that the military had threatened to attack the American lines.

An element of humor was injected into the situation when a representative of the revolutionary junta at Vera Cruz asked General Funston for permission to go out and direct the military. Officials here see danger for General Huerta should the military cut off his exit from Mexico City. His departure is assumed in official circles, but if the military triumph, it is pointed out that Huerta scarcely could expect safe conduct to the Gulf coast.

Indications that preparations were under way for eventualities in Mexico City were contained in reported statements of John R. Sullivan, former American vice-consul in Saltillo, now on his way from Washington to Carranza's headquarters. Sullivan was quoted as having said that Carranza, with Constitutional leaders for the life of Huerta, if the dictator were captured in Mexico City.

Carranza's action in dismissing General Felipe Angeles from the Constitutional army had been maintained, another break with Villa was a prominent topic of discussion to-day among Constitutional agents here.

Charles A. Douglas, general Carranza's counsel, declared openly that Carranza must be removed from the situation before peace could be brought about between Carranza and Villa.

Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among those things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is that a mother's milk is a splendid tonic. It is a penetrating liquid and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectation.

Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectation.

At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than a century no more timely advice can be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest its daily use during expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend" and you will find a bottle of great help and value. Ask for Bradfield's Regulator Co., 302 Lateral Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information to expectant mothers. It contains many suggestions that are of interest to all women.

PURE BLOOD MAKES HEALTHY PEOPLE

Blood's Saraparilla surely and effectively removes scrofula, boils and other blood diseases because it drives out of the blood all the humors that cause these diseases. They cannot be successfully treated in any other way. External applications for their removal have proven almost useless, because they cannot drive out the impurities that are in the blood.

Wood's Saraparilla makes pure rich blood, perfects the digestion and builds up the whole system. The skin becomes smooth, clean and healthy. This great blood remedy has stood the test of forty years. Insist on having Wood's, for nothing else acts like it. There is no real substitute. Get it to-day. Sold by all druggists.
